GAZETTE.
[NUMB. 1639.]

From Monday DECEMBER 29, to Monday JANUARY 5, 1767.

American Intelligence.

QUEBEC, November 24.

FRIDAY last were brought to this town, by the provoſt marſhal of the diſtrict of Montreal, ſix perſons of conſiderable note in that place, as well Engliſh as French, charged with having been concerned in the aſſaſſination of Thomas Walker, on the 6th of December 1764. We hear there are orders iſſued for apprehending ſeveral others.

WILLIAMSBURG, Nov. 27.

A bill is brought into the houſe of burgeſſes for erecting a ſtatue to his Majeſty, as a grateful acknowledgment for repealing the ſtamp-act, and thereby reſtoring the rights and privileges of his American ſubjects; alſo an obeliſk, to commemorate the ſervices of thoſe noble and worthy patriots that diſtinguiſhed themſelves in bringing about that happy event.

This day it was determined in the hon. houſe of burgeſſes, by a large majority, that the office of treaſurer of this colony ſhall be executed by one perſon; and it was accordingly agreed that ROBERT CARTER NICHOLAS, Eſq; ſhould be intruſted with that important department.

It was voted alſo, that the ſpeaker to that houſe ſhall have a ſalary of £. 500 ſterling a year.

PHILADELPHIA, November 27.

By Captain Forſter, from the Grenades, we are informed, that on the 21ſt ult. about 4 o'clock in the morning, they had a ſmart ſhock of an earthquake there, which laſted about three minutes; that at Baſſeterre the inhabitants were greatly alarmed, and ran out of their houſes, expecting every moment to be buried in their ruins, but providentially they received no damage in the town; that a gentleman's plantation, about ſix miles from thence, the dwelling houſe, ſugar houſe, and all the outhouſes were entirely thrown down, but he did not hear of any lives being loſt; and that the ſame was ſenſibly felt on board the ſhipping in the harbour.

The above-mentioned earthquake was alſo felt at Barbados, but did not laſt ſo long as at the Grenades, and did no damage.

HALIFAX, November 28.

Yeſterday evening arrived in the Glaſgow man of war, his excellency the right honourable William Campbell, captain general and governor in chief of this province: And this day his excellency was ſworn into the government with the uſual ſolemnities.

NEWPORT, December 8.

Thomas Moffatt, Eſq; Auguſtus Johnſton, Eſq; and alſo John Cooke, Eſq; (in behalf of the hon. Martin Howard, jun. Eſq;) petitioned the general aſſembly for a compenſation of the loſſes they reſpectively ſuſtained by riots in Auguſt 1765;—the conſiderations of which petitions were referred to the next ſeſſion.

BOSTON, December 8.

We hear that the bill for granting compenſation to the ſufferers, and of indemnity, &c. is paſſed the three branches of the legiſlature;——The houſe, it is ſaid, paſſed a reſolution to the following effect, previous to ſending up the bill. That the grant was made in loyal and grateful regard to his Majeſty's mild and gracious recommendation, for the ſake of internal peace and good order, but without any regard to the governor's interpretation, and under a full perſuaſion the ſufferers had no juſt claim or demand of right againſt the province; and that thoſe of them who applied home, inſtead of firſt applying here, are very reprehenſible. That the reſolves of aſſembly here laſt year, could not be the occaſion of riots two months preceeding.

December 15.

We hear the aſſembly were almoſt unanimouſly for the diſmiſſion of Richard Jackſon, Eſq; from the agency of this province. The vote in the houſe was carried by 21 againſt 6, yet the governor has not aſſented. So hard is it to get rid of an agent. This ſhould ſerve for a proper caution for the future.

BOSTON, December 15.

Tueſday laſt his excellency the governor was pleaſed to prorogue the great and general court of this province to wedneſday the 21ſt of January next, after having made the following ſpeech to both houſes of aſſembly, viz.

Gentlemen of the Council and
Gentlemen of the Houſe of Repreſentatives,

AS the buſineſs for which you were aſſembled is now happily finiſhed, I am unwilling to detain you here any longer; I have therefore poſtponed ſome buſineſs, which I ſhould otherwiſe have laid before you, unto the next ſeſſion. And to the ſame time I have referred your vote concerning the agent, which was laid before me laſt night; at which time I ſhall take it into conſideration without delay.

Council-Chamber, FRA. BERNARD.
Dec. 9, 1766.

Extract from the journal of the honourable houſe of repreſentatives of this province.

Veneris, 5 die Decembris, A. D. 1766.

ORDERED, That Major Hawley, Mr. Otis, and Mr. Adams, be a committee to prepare a reſolve, ſetting forth the motives which induced this houſe to paſs the bill for granting compenſation, &c. Who reported thereon as follows.

Reſolved, That this houſe in paſſing the bill for granting compenſation to the ſufferers, and of free and general pardon, indemnity and oblivion, to the offenders, in the late times, were influenced by a loyal and grateful regard to his Majeſty's moſt mild and gracious recommendation; by a deference to the opinion of the illuſtrious patrons of the colonies in Great-Britain; and for the ſake of internal peace and order: Without regard to any interpretation of his Majeſty's recommendation into a requiſition, precluding all debate and controverſy; and under a full perſuaſion that the ſufferers had no juſt claim or demand on the province. And that this compliance ought not hereafter to be drawn into a precedent.

After which the houſe paſſed the two following reſolutions, viz.

I. Reſolved, That it was the indiſpenſible duty of the ſufferers to have applied to the government here, rather than to the government at home; and that the neglect of any of them to petition to this aſſembly till Oct ber laſt, while they were complaining at home, is very reprehenſible.

II. Whereas it appears to this houſe by the reſolutions of the honourable houſe of commons of Great Britain, that it was their opinion that the reſolutions of divers of the aſſemblies in America, had a tendency to encourage the riots that happened there

Reſolved, That this cannot be ſaid of the reſolution of the houſe of repreſentatives of this province, as the ſaid riots happened about two months before any ſuch reſolutions were made.

Then the committee appointed for the purpoſe carried the bill up to the honourable board, and returned.

NEW-YORK, December 18.

We are well aſſured from New Jerſey, that upon the news of ſeveral ſhips coming from England to load wheat, and its raiſing the price to a dollar a buſhel, that one ſingle farmer at Rariton, brought to market there one thouſand buſhels:—This proves there might be plenty of wheat in this country, if we had but farmers enough.—And notwithſtanding the dearneſs of proviſions in general here, it ſhews only money is wanting to procure them: For ſeveral of thoſe ſhips are already loaded and ſailed with wheat, both from this place and Philadelphia, and it has been brought to market ſince in ſuch plenty, that the price has fell conſiderably.

By letters from Africa, via Dominica, we learn that the ſoldiers at James's fort, on that coaſt, had formed a deſign in Auguſt laſt of ſeizing the fort, and murdering the officers, and other reſidents there; but the horrible conſpiracy was diſcovered by a ſoldier to the commanding officer, the night before it was to have been put into execution, who immediately put the ringleaders into irons, and ſent them by commodore O'Hara to Senegal, to take their trials; that governor McPherſon died in Auguſt; that two French ſnows were lying within gun-ſhot of James's fort, trading for ſlaves, without the leaſt interruption, though detrimental to the Engliſh; that the commandant of James's fort receives, for the benefit of governor O'Hara, for the clearing of veſſels, as follows, viz. for a ſhip £. 11 11 0 ſterling; for other ſquare-rigged veſſels, £ 10 10 0; and for a ſloop or ſchooner £ 8.

December 22.

The 14th inſt. in the morning, departed this life, in the 89th year of his age, Henry Cuyler, Eſq; many years an eminent merchant in this city, and was ſaid to be the oldeſt inhabitant in it: He has left behind him a very numerous and reſpectable progeny; and his remains were decently interred in the family vault, in the New Dutch Church Yard, the tueſday following, his Majeſty's council, and moſt of the principal gentlemen of the place having attended the funeral.

New Advertiſements.

For PHILADELPHIA,
(To ſail on Sunday the 11th inſtant)
The Brig. CHARLES TOWN PACKET
THOMAS EASTWICK, Maſter.

FOR freight or paſſage apply to ſaid maſter, or to Thomas Shirley.
January 2, 1767.

TO BE SOLD,
By EDWARD LIGHTWOOD,

SUPERFINE Philadelphia flour in half barrels and kegs, milk and water bread in kegs, ſhip bread in barrels; beſt of rum of all ſorts, old French brandy, Madera wine (New-York quality) in bottles, Holland's gin in caſes containing five gallons and an half; vinegar, melaſſes, muſcovado ſugar, coffee, tea, ſalt, oil of turpentine, Barbados tar, honey.—Beſt New York Madera wine per quarter caſk, Providence limejuice, dried citron.—— Poor Richard's Almanack for 1767.

THE ſubſcriber's late advertiſement having had but little effect, in collecting his juſt dues, he is therefore obliged (thro' neceſſity, and the fear of ſhutting up his houſe for want of his money to preſerve his credit) to put all his outſtanding debts into the hands of CHARLES PINCKNEY, Eſq; attorney at law, to be immediately collected and recovered, of which all perſons concerned are humbly deſired to take notice, and excuſe his conduct in this reſpect, for the preſſing reaſons abovementioned. ROBERT DILLON.

TO BE LETT,
And may be enter'd on the firſt of January,

THE houſe I now live in upon the Point, lately poſſeſſed by GEORGE SEAMAN, Eſq; It is a large commodious houſe, pleaſantly ſituated, has chair houſes, ſtable, ſtore houſes, pantry, a pump with good water, a garden, &c. &c. all in good repair. For particulars enquire of EDWARD MARTIN.

WE the ſubſcribers have continued our advertiſement in the news-papers for three months paſt, acquainting all perſons indebted to us to diſcharge their accompts by the firſt of this inſtant January; and as it has had no other effect, than our being obliged to diſcharge what we owed here; this, for the laſt time, is to deſire all thoſe that have neglected to diſcharge their accompts with us, that on the firſt day of February next, we ſhall put all our accompts into the hands of an attorney to be ſued for without diſtinction.

EDWARD DAVIES,
Jan. 5, 1767. RICHARD WAYNE.

At the ſubſcriber's Houſe in KING-STREET,

CHARLES-TOWN, January 5, 1767.

THE number of veſſels now in this port amounts to 85 (fewer than we generally have at this time) viz. 26 ſhips, 6 ſnows, 18 brigantines, 1 hillander, 9 ſcoons 6, and 25 ſloops 3 of which two thirds are loaded or loading, and veſſels that have put into this port in diſtreſs.

The 28th paſt put into Beaufort, Port-Royal, to refit, the Brigt. King George, of and for New-York, from the Bay of Honduras, John Bleak maſter, having ſprung a leak at ſea, and made nine inches water in an hour.

The Brigt. Oſwego, George Fowler maſter, from Falmouth, which arrived here laſt monday, was bound for New-York, and been 95 days at ſea; and received much damage in her ſails and rigging, which obliged Capt. Fowler to put in here to refit.

The ſloop Dennis, of and from St. Kitts, Lawrence Field, Maſter, for Madera, and the ſloop Burke, of and for Philadelphia, Arthur Burrows, Maſter, from St. Euſtatius, have likewiſe put into this port, in diſtreſs.

Capt. Ferguſon, who arrived here laſt Tueſday, was two days before in company with the Brigt. Savage, of and from this port for Barbados, John Dickinſon maſter, which had ſprung a leak on the 28th paſt, ſo that both pumps could hardly keep her free, Capt. Ferguſon parted from her in the night, in a gale of wind.

Yeſterday was married, at Ponpon, Mr. Andrew Cunningham, of this town, merchant, to Mrs. Margaret Cochran, relict of Doctor John Cochran.

CARVER'S WHARFF,
At GOSPORT,

BY the many additions and improvements lately made, is the moſt convenient in England for clearing rice, &c. &c. The largeſt ſhips that come from Carolina can lay a-float at all times of tide, and as the wharff is now covered, rice can be ſhifted in any weather.—The poſt going to and from London, every day, makes it very convenient, and ſkins, indico, or ſuch other goods, as are often ſent by land, may be immediately conveyed by waggons to London. Any number of porters may be had in order to diſpatch buſineſs, and many other advantages attend the proprietors of ſhips and cargoes, too tedious to mention.

James Poyas,

CONTINUES ſelling off his ſtock of GOODS, conſiſting of the moſt uſeful articles now in demand, and of the lateſt importation, at NINE for ONE, or, taking a quantity not leſs than fifty pounds, at EIGHT and a HALF for ONE, READY MONEY.

Williamſburg, Nov. 6.

This Day the Honourable Houſe of Burgeſſes for this Colony, aſſembled at the Capitol, when the Honourable PEYTON RANDOLPH, Eſq; His Majeſty's Attorney General, was choſen Speaker. And his Honour FRANCIS FAUQUIER, Eſq; Lieutenant Governor opened the Seſſion with the following SPEECH.

Gentlemen of the Council, Mr. Speaker, and Gentlemen of the Houſe of Burgeſſes,

NOT having any preſſing Occaſion for my meeting you in General Aſſembly before this Time, I have followed the Bent of my own Inclinations, which have always been to create as little Expence to the Country, and as little Trouble to yourſelves, as the Circumſtances of the Times would permit me.

Since my calling this Aſſembly, ſeveral important Events have happened in Great-Britain, in which you are deeply intereſted. All the Papers relating to theſe Matters, have been tranſmitted to me by His Majeſty's principal Secretaries of State; and it is my Duty to communicate them All to you without Reſerve. They conſiſt of ſeveral Reſolutions of the Houſe of Commons, and Acts of the Legiſlature; by due Attention to which you will readily collect the undiſguiſed Sentiments of the Britiſh Nation relative to her Colonies: Sentiments which are not mere ſpeculative Opinions, but which have operated ſtrongly in your Favour. Your Grievances have been redreſſed, and the Act you thought oppreſſive repealed, and every Indulgence in Commerce which you could with Reaſon expect, or even deſire, been granted you. Your Mother Country has on this Occaſion, not only acted with her uſual Prudence, but alſo with the greateſt Kindneſs and Affection towards you her Children; and as an indulgent Parent, has a Right to expect a Return of Duty, Obedience and Gratitude from her natural Children, ſhe has a Right to claim the ſame from you her political ones. My long contracted Friendſhip for you, bids me wiſh, and the Experience I have gained of the Genius of the People over whom I have the Honour to preſide, teaches me to expect, that your preſent Conduct will do you Honour at Home, and convince every Enemy to the Crown of Great-Britain, that her Colonies are, and ever will be, her Support, to the utmoſt of their Abilities, againſt the Attacks of the moſt powerful; and will never ſuffer her Empire to be inſulted with Impunity. From the Conſideration of the true and permanent Intereſt of the Colony, I hope; from the Experience I have already had of the Abilities of many Members of this Aſſembly, I expect; and from the Knowledge of your Senſe of Honour and Gratitude, I have the Confidence; that you will exert yourſelves to ſhew, that your Loyalty to your KING, and your Affection to your Mother Country, ought not to be impeached. The Attachment of your Friends in Great Britain, who have been ſteady in your Intereſt, will, as I have the greateſt Reaſon to believe, depend on the Returns you ſhall now make to the many Acts of Kindneſs which you muſt acknowledge have been ſhewn to you. The Criſis is very great, and if not properly and ſeriouſly attended to, may be very alarming. My Affection to you, obliges me to mention this, but my Reliance on you, diſpenſes with my dwelling longer on the Subject.

It is expedient I ſhould alſo recommend to your Conſideration and Humanity, a poor unhappy Set of People who are deprived of their Senſes, and wander about the Country, terrifying the Reſt of their Fellow Creatures: A legal Confinement and proper Proviſion ought to be appointed for theſe miſerable Objects, who cannot help themſelves. Every civilized Country has an Hoſpital for theſe People, where they are confined, maintained, and attended by able Phyſicians, to endeavour to reſtore them to their loſt Reaſon.

Mr. Speaker, and Gentlemen of the Houſe of Burgeſſes,

I have nothing particular to aſk of you, his Majeſty having made no Requiſitions from his Colonies; and it is with great Pleaſure I can ſay, that notwithſtanding the Diſtraction of the Times, and the Ceſſation of Juſtice, no Man's Property has been violated, and no Man has a Claim of Reparation at your Hands.

Gentlemen of the Council, and of the Houſe of Burgeſſes,

I ſhall only add to what I have ſaid, the recommending to you, a cool and conſiderate Reflection on the Circumſtances of the Colony, and of what is expected from you. You never had an Occaſion, and poſſibly never may have another in which the deliberate Uſe of your Judgment was more neceſſary. To that I truſt, and doubt not but your Reſolutions will convince me and all Mankind, that I have not truſted in vain.

The conditions of the above sales are, twelve months credit, with interest from the date, the property not to be altered till security is given.

☞ All persons indebted to said estate, are desired to make speedy payment; and those having demands thereon, to send in their accompts properly attested, to

G. PADDON, ROSE, JOHN BOND. } EXECUTORS.

ALL persons indebted to the estate of Francis Stuart, late of Beaufort, merchant, deceased, either by bond, note, or open account, are desired to make immediate payment of the same, and those to whom the said estate is indebted to bring in their accompts properly attested to

N. B. It is above nine months since the deceased Francis Stuart advertised his having declined business in Beaufort, and his desire of closing his affairs there; at the same time requesting those indebted to him to settle their accompts with him; such as paid no regard to that advertisement, need not be surprised if they find themselves under the necessity of settling with an attorney at law, should they prove equally regardless of this, as it would be unreasonable for them to expect the same indulgence from administrators that they possibly might have had from the deceased, when alive.

A Quarterly MEETING of the SOUTH-CAROLINA SOCIETY, will be holden Tuesday the 6th day of January next, at the house of Mr Elisha Poinsett, in Charles-Town; where the members are desired to attend precisely at eleven o'clock in the forenoon.

FOR passage, (having good accommodations) apply to said Master, or LLOYD & NEYEE.

WHEREAS by an accident, on the 4th December 1765, the FREE-SCHOOL, in the parish of St. Thomas, Berkley county, (subsisting on the donation of Richard Beresford, Esq; deceased, and under the direction of the incorporated Vestry of the said parish) took fire, by which means, the same was entirely consumed: And, as there was a necessity for the erecting and building another without delay, the expence of which, for materials and workmens bills, &c. has been very considerable. These are therefore to signify to those whose bonds upon interest are due and payable, that there is now an absolute necessity of calling in the interest arising thereon; and they are hereby desired to take due notice hereof, that immediate payment is required, which will prevent both trouble and expence, and what will be very disagreeable to JAMES MARION, Treasurer to said donation.
